

The Jane Cassisa Scholarship Trust

The Jane Cassisa Scholarship is made by Paul V. Cassisa, Jr., in recognition of the caring, kindness and love his wife, Jane, has unselfishly shared with him and their 5 daughters throughout 30 years of marriage.

CATHOLIC CAMPUS MINISTRY STUDENT AWARD (CCM Award)

(1) Two awards of $2,500 (totaling $5,000) shall be made during each Fall Semester to a practicing Catholic student at the University of Mississippi in Oxford, Mississippi (Ole Miss) who is an active member of the Catholic Campus Ministry (CCM) run by St. John the Evangelist Parish in Oxford, Mississippi.

(2) The CCM Award recipient shall be a practicing Catholic student who is enrolled full-time at the University of Mississippi in Oxford, Mississippi at the time the award is presented.

(3) The CCM Award recipient must plan to attend the University of Mississippi in Oxford, Mississippi full-time during the Spring Semester immediately following presentation of the CCM Award.

(4) Any qualified person interested in receiving the CCM Award shall apply at St. John the Evangelist Parish in Oxford, Mississippi no later than October 15 of each Fall Semester.

(5) A committee comprised of individuals approved by the pastor at St. John the Evangelist Parish in Oxford, Mississippi shall select the CCM Award recipient no later than November 15 of each Fall Semester.

(6) The committee shall analyze the qualified applicants for the CCM Award and choose the person among those applicants who, in the opinion of the committee, is the best example of both:

- a. Living the Catholic faith, as demonstrated through his or her daily interactions with others; and
- b. Practicing the Catholic faith.

(7) The funds from the CCM Award shall be used to help the recipient defray the cost of tuition.

(8) The CCM Award shall be paid to the Bursar's Office at the University of Mississippi.

(9) The CCM Award recipient shall not be eligible to receive another CCM Award during the Fall Semester following the receipt of a CCM Award.

(10) If the amount of the annual CCM Award in any given Fall Semester exceeds the total price of full-time tuition at the University of Mississippi for the following Spring Semester then St. John the Evangelist Parish may, at its discretion, choose more than one CCM Award recipient for that Fall Semester, and may divide that CCM Award among those recipients in the manner it deems best.

(11) If there is no qualified applicant for the CCM Award in any given Fall Semester, then St. John the Evangelist Parish shall donate the amount that the CCM Award would have been for that Fall Semester to the Paul Duffy Fund or otherwise used to fund family and youth activities at St. John the Evangelist Parish in Oxford, Mississippi.
